Paige Dashner Long is an internationally recognized flute choir director and contrabass flutist. Currently Ms Long directs the New England Conservatory Summer Metropolitan Flute Festival Orchestra and the Florida Flute Orchestra. As an active guest flute clinician and ensemble director, she has led workshops and directed flute ensembles for music schools in France, Germany and Mexico, as well as for flute associations throughout America. She performs with the International Flute Orchestra, serves on the executive board of the Florida Flute Association and is past president of the Greater Boston Flute Association.

As an active performer, Paige currently plays flute and harpsichord with the Daytona Solisti Chamber Orchestra and the Ormond Beach Symphony Orchestra. As an active teacher, she maintains a private flute studio. As an international ensemble performer, Paige has presented concerts in France, Germany, Austria, England, Wales, Ireland, Greece, Czech Republic, Russia, Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Poland, Slovenia, Slovakia, Hungary, Chile and Mexico.

As a lower flute specialist, she has written several articles for Flute Talk Magazine as well as for flute association newsletters throughout the country. In addition to her flute activities, she is Director of Music at St. James Episcopal Church in Ormond Beach, FL. For more information please visit www.contraflute.com.

Paige's flute ensembles utilize her extensive flute collection including piccolo, Eb soprano flute, concert flute, Bb flute d'amour, alto flute in G; bass flute, contrabass flute, the Kingma sub contrabass flute in G-one of three in the world, and the Kotato double contrabass flute-one of four in the world. This unique and exceptional instrumentation enables all of Paige's ensembles to be beautifully balanced, as well as provides unlimited repertoire possibilities. To achieve this wonderful, lyrical, balanced sound, 50% of each ensemble is comprised of lower flutes (alto, bass, contrabass, sub contrabass and double contrabass).

Master Classes:

This year we are encouraging ensembles to take advantage of our guest artists' expertise! Ensembles should have 1 or more flutists with additional instrumentation as needed. Solo performances will also be welcome.

Silent Auction:

We will be once again having a silent auction at our upcoming flute festival. The auction did really well last year and we are hoping to beat that record this year.

This year baskets will be music themed. We are looking for donations of CDs, concert tickets, music themed accessories, etc.

If you would like to donate anything for the silent auction, please contact Liz.

News on the National Flute convention 2009 in New York City: By Dee Ogden

This years convention was absolutely awesome. I played in the Flute Choir that opened the convention, about 300 flutes, and also in the World Record Choir, about 2000 playing in tune. It was an experience that I will relive in memory for years to come. The sound was heavenly, and Sir James loved it too! He did a great job of conducting and giving directions to other conductors on the floor and getting the very best sound out of all of us. All workshops, reading sessions and concerts were terrific. Sir James master class was interesting, as were other master classes. An astounding week!

Heidi Knight: I played in the summer band that happened on August 2-7. We had three rehearsals and performed August 7 on Saturday night. It was a lot of fun.

Logo:

I just wanted to extend my thanks to everyone who helped out in designing our new logo. I must say the colors look amazing. The logo made its premiere earlier this month as it was placed lovingly on all of our flute festival flyers. Thanks again everyone!

A Note For Teacher & Business Members:

Just a reminder that those who have not renewed their membership should do so by September 1st to avoid any interruptions in member benefits.

Those who have not renewed by Sept. 1 will be removed from the mailing list and web-site. The Teacher and Business pages currently make up the bulk of our web-site hits so be sure to renew so you do not miss out on all the great publicity!
